

xm instant traffic & weather is a great help for a working person like myself..who drives for a living.since its started couple a months ago its been a great tool for my commute and work...dont understand why you want to stop a service that helps people on a daily basis.this is the year 2004 get on with the times...